

Volunteering recruitment, retention and recognition:

Partner examples

The Act Belong Commit team have compiled a list of real life examples demonstrating how Partners currently recruit, retain, and recognise volunteers in their organisation or group.

Partner examples: Volunteer recruitment

Posting your event on the Act Belong Commit Activity Finder to recruit volunteers

Examples:

- Connect Victoria Park
- Harold Hawthorne Community Centre
- Riding for the Disabled (Carine)

Using Act Belong Commit social media tiles

Examples:

- Homestead parkrun
- HorsePower Peel Group
- Freo Fury Netball Club

Hosting volunteer information sessions or workshops

Examples:

- City of Mandurah Steps Into
 Volunteering Information Sessions
- Kanyana Wildlife Rehabilitation
 Centre Volunteer Information
 Sessions

Partner examples: Volunteer retention

Implementing a clear management structure

Examples:

- One Woman Project
- Bowls WA
- · Australian Football League

Hosting volunteer meet and greet sessions

Examples:

- City of Canning
- Blue Mountain Safe Space for Suicide Prevention

Hosting volunteer training sessions

Examples:

- City of Nedlands Volunteer Resource Centre
- Volunteering WA
- Department of Fire and Emergency Services
- WIRES

Establishing a volunteer recognition program

Examples:

Basketball WA

Partner examples: Volunteer recognition

Hosting volunteer thank you events

Examples:

- City of Canning
- City of Gold Coast
- Dynamic Flame Badminton Club
- Tasmanian Museum and Art Gallery

Presenting volunteer of the week/month awards

Examples:

- Vic Park Raiders Junior Football Club
- Murwillumbah Colts Junior Rugby League
- Volunteer Marlborough

Providing volunteers with a gift

Examples:

- · Volunteering Australia
- Tasmanian Museum and Art Gallery

Hosting a volunteer annual awards event

Examples:

- City of Rockingham
- · City of Mandurah
- City of Belmont

Shine a spotlight on your volunteers

Examples:

- City of Fremantle
- Australian Red Cross NT